

EXAMINATION QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What if my eligibility expires on or before May 31, 2007?
You should schedule your exam immediately with Thompson Prometric by calling (800) 897-2046.
What if my eligibility expires in June or July 2007?
If you plan to take an exam on or after June 1, 2007 please await instruction on how to schedule with PSI. However, recognize that unforeseen implementation issues may delay your ability to take an exam until the contract matters are resolved with PSI.
How do I schedule an exam with PSI?
PSI will have telephone and online scheduling options. Scheduling procedures will be listed on the Board's website once the Board obtains this information.
When will I be able to schedule an exam with PSI?
You will be able to schedule an exam with PSI within the month of May for exam dates on or after June 1, 2007. An exact date will be posted on our website once the Board obtains this information.
Will there be any recognizable changes to the scheduling procedures?
Appointment Rescheduling Process	Must reschedule 2 calendar days prior to appointment to avoid penalty. (As opposed to the current 3 days.)
Examination Appointment Availability	Appointments available to candidates within 5 days of original request. (As opposed to the current 14 days.)
Where are the testing sites located?
PSI will have 13 testing sites in California dedicated to the Board's exams. Site locations will be posted on the Board's website once the Board obtains this information.
If I am currently eligible, will I receive a new candidate handbook from PSI?
If you are currently eligible you should receive a candidate handbook from PSI within the month of May.
Will there be any changes to the exam format or content?
There will be no changes to the exam format or content. However, for the clinical vignette exams, the vignette and question will appear on the same screen.
What will be the waiting period to retest if I fail an exam?
If you fail an exam you will not become eligible for re-examination for approximately 160 to 180 days from your last examination date. You must retake the examination within one year from your last examination date.
Will there be a change in application and exam fees?
No.
